

ECCJ Managing Director, Mr. Sogawa visited the Director General of the National Energy Conservation Center China, Mr. Jia in Beijing

Mr. Jiro Sogawa, Managing Director of the Energy Conservation Center Japan (ECCJ) visited Mr. Jia Fusheng, Director General of the National Energy Conservation Center China (NECC) in Beijing on March 6, 2015 to discuss on the future cooperation for promotion of energy efficiency and conservation between two countries.

Five from NECC and three from ECCJ attended the meeting and exchanged their positive and creative opinions on the specific activities in the fiscal year 2015.

The cooperation between two centers, NECC and ECCJ, had been suspended since September 2012, but now it has restarted for further promotion and dissemination of the energy conservation in China and Japan.

Mr. Jia Fusheng and Mr. Jiro Sogawa are the 5th and the 4th respectively from the right.
