

Presenter Bio – Stanford Harrison

Stanford Harrison commenced as head of the Commercial Building Disclosure Team in the Department of Climate Change and Energy Efficiency in 2012. He is now the Director of the Commercial Buildings Team in the Department of Industry, Science, Energy and Resources with responsibility for the statutory Commercial Buildings Disclosure Program, the National Australian Built Environment Rating System Secretariat and commercial buildings energy efficiency policy development. He is the Australian Executive Committee member for the IEA Energy in Buildings and Communities program and co-chair of the Building Energy Efficiency Task group of the International Partnership for Energy Efficiency Cooperation.

Stanford holds a Bachelor of Science and postgraduate qualifications in economics and public administration.