

Indonesia

1. Legal framework for improvement of energy efficiency and conservation

(2) Regulatory measures

1) Regulatory measures based on the law

A. To emphasize that energy conservation effort is responsibility of central government, local government, entrepreneur and society

1. Name of measure

To emphasize that energy conservation effort is responsibility of central government, local government, private sector and society

2. Purpose of measure

- To increase the awareness of all people on Energy conservation efforts
- To involve society and private sector in Energy conservation activity

3. Target sector (transport, building, manufacturing, etc.)

Transportation, buildings and commercial, industrial and residential sectors

4. Funds and budget for the measure

State budget and other resources (TA)

5. Method for measuring the effect of the measure (energy consumption reduction, energy cost reduction, etc.)

- Dissemination energy conservation program (sticker, leaflet, billboard, seminar/workshop, etc)
- Providing information (booklet, website)

6. Results of measures

Increasing awareness of people on energy conservation

7. Future tasks

- To widen dissemination of energy conservation program
- To improve information system for public sector

8. Others

9. For further details about measures, please contact:

Directorate General of Electricity and Energy Utilization (DGEEU),
Ministry of Energy and Mineral Resources